

AMALGAMATION FOR SLAVIA?

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Slavia has asked Second Division club Sandringham to amalgamate.

Sandringham turned down the request.

However, it is understood that a club official has also approached a First Division club with the amalgamation offer.

Slavia is in a desperate position. On the bottom of the State League table and without a win to its credit, the club must do something drastic to avoid relegation.

An amalgamation is thought by many to be the best way out.

Many have talked of approaching Lions but it is unlikely Lions will make a deal.

Many Slavia officials believe the club would benefit by becoming established as a suburban team.

This was one of the reasons for approaching Sandringham.

But Sandringham official Vic Knight said today, "Ours is an up and coming club and we would not give a thought to amalgamation with Slavia."

Slavia has suffered many setbacks this year, the greatest being the loss of its Port Melbourne ground, Murphy Reserve.

Then came the return to England of Alan Reed, Alan McBain and Jimmy Gildea and the request for a transfer from Ian Livingstone.

In addition, coach Ron Sawecki quit last week, to be replaced by goalkeeper Mike O'Hara.

The latest in a long line of defeats came on Sunday, when Slavia was beaten 0-5 by Footscray J.U.S.T., which could have gone further ahead had Helmut Kuhn not saved a penalty and had J.U.S.T. played at full pace.

Newcomer Jim Train has proved a success in defence and his brother is expected to arrive soon from England.

Brian Kemping, another newcomer scored the only goal in Slavia's recent 1-1 draw with Hakoah but most observers feel the newcomers have come too late.

Some clubmen are so pessimistic they are forecasting possible liquidation if Slavia is relegated.

Borg gets five years

Green Gully Ajax player Mario Borg has been suspended for five years.

Borg, who joined Ajax from George Cross this year, was found guilty by the Metropolitan League disciplinary committee of assaulting referee Stathopoulos during a game against Brighton two weeks ago.

Tony Cassar was found guilty of pushing Stathopoulos and was suspended for six weeks. Green Gully Ajax was put on a $100 bond for the rest of the season.

The charges arose from a brawl that started during Ajax's game against Brighton. The game was abandoned with the score 2-1 for Brighton and the disciplinary committee has ruled that the score stand.

See George Yelland's report, page 9.

Croatia defender Bobby Symington (right) heads the ball clear as Melbourne's Billy Rogers races in to follow up the attack.

Symington and Hugh Lunn played strongly in defence but had little support. Melbourne won the match 2-0. All State League reports are on page 11.

Ballarat man wins $500

Mr. Natale Liubicich of Errard Street, South Ballarat, has won the Mocopan tipping contest by forecasting the winning teams and the total goals scored in the last round of State League matches.

Mr. Liubicich won $500 but was not eligible for the $500 bonus because his entry was not accompanied by an empty Mocopan Coffee pack.

The prize now goes back to $100 and will jackpot week by week if no correct entries are received.

Conditions of entry and competition rules are on the back page.

First win to Vics

Victoria won its first game this year when it beat South Australia 1-0 at Hindmarsh Stadium on Monday.

The only goal of the game was scored by David Gorrie in the 37th minute.

Gorrie played as middle striker because Branko Buljevic of Footscray J.U.S.T. did not show up at Essendon airport.

Team manager, John Barclay, was given no official reason for Buljevic's absence.

To make up a total of 14 players, Barclay decided to take along J.U.S.T. full back Milenko Ruzmir, who had driven to the airport, Barbara Rasic, the wife of State coach Zvonimir Rasic.

Victoria's line-up for the match was Reilly; Utjesenovic, Kinnell, Goodwin, Irvine; Wallace, MacKay, Scott; McColl, Gorrie, Vojtek.

Vojtek was replaced in the 72nd minute by Frank Micic.

Best players for Victoria were Jock Goodwin, George Kinnell, Jimmy

MacKay and John Wallace.

A two minute lapse in the second half cost Victoria's under 14's the game against South Australia.

Victoria led 1-0 through Graham Hamill, but then S.A. went ahead to win 3-1.

Victoria's best players were goalkeeper Emmanuel Tsivoslou, Claude Lucchesi, Arthur Xanthopoulos and Hamill.

West Germany 3, England 2

(Mullery (E) 32, Peters (E) 50, Beckenbauer 69, Seeler 81, Mueller 108)

West Germany staged a magnificent recovery to make up a two-goal deficit and beat England for only the second time in 50 years.

West Germany's coach Helmut Schoen said after the match he had always had confidence in his team.

"Even after being two goals down I believed in them," he said, "but it did not necessarily mean I thought we could win."

"My players kept their heads when they were two down. When they saw England were weakening physically, they brought out something extra and this seemed to be the turning point."

England's team manager Sir Alf Ramsey attributed England's defeat to two defensive errors.

"No international team, at least not one as strong as England, should lose a two-goal lead," he said. "They were bad goals. I have never seen an England side give two goals away like that."

The game was played in temperatures of over 80 degrees and the players were almost out on their feet in the rarefied atmosphere after the 90 minutes.

It was fitting that Germany's winning goal should come from goal machine Gerd Mueller, bringing his cup tally to eight.

MEXICO	3	2	1	0	5	0	5
BELGIUM	3	1	0	2	4	5	2
EL SALVADOR	3	0	0	3	0	9	0

El Salvador 0, Russia 2

(Byshovets 52, Muntyan 74)

The Russians looked far from convincing in a match of few football skills.

Looking jaded and tired, the Russians had little idea once the ball reached the edge of the opponents' penalty area.

The forwards were largely ineffective more because of their own bad shooting than as a result of the close marking by the Central American defenders.

Brazil's Roberto Rivellino.

After Pena had converted a penalty early in the game, Mexico was content to defend and employ time-wasting tactics in order to hold the lead and qualify for the quarter finals.

QUARTER FINALS

Italy 4, Mexico 1

(Gonzalez (M) 13, Guzman (M) o.g. 25, Riva 63, 76, Rivera 69)

Led by curly-haired Luigi Riva, and tireless midfield worker Angelo Domenghini, the Italians needed only 30 minutes of champagne football to regain their badly dented confidence and move into the semi-finals.

After the final whistle, the Italians hugged and kissed each other, fell on the pitch and wept and ran along the sidelines throwing kisses at the spectators.

But the game started badly for the European champions, when in the 13th minute, Jose Luis Gonzalez slammed home a short pass from Fragozo.

But then full back Javier Guzman deflected a harmless shot by Domenghini into his own net and Riva put Italy ahead with a solo effort.

After going further ahead through Gianni Rivera, Italy's glorified million-dollar forward machine was clicking for the first time in the World Cup.

Uruguay 1, Russia 0

(Esparrago 117)

The match was tough and even, with the Russians dominating most of the first half and the South Americans doing most of the running in the second period.

In extra time, Anatoly Byshovets got the ball into the net but Vitali Khmelitskiy, who had put the ball across to him, was ruled off-side.

The Russians started as strong favorites but found it hard to get through the strong Uruguayan defence, well marshalled by captain Luis Ubias.

Star of the first half was right winger Gannady Yevryuzhikhin but his strikers could not convert the opportunities he created.

Yevryuzhikhin was in the Moscow Dynamo team that beat Victoria 7-1 recently.

Uruguay looked far better than its earlier performances had indicated. The linkmen and strikers moved with lightning speed, giving the Russians many anxious moments.

After a good first half display, the Soviet defence began to tire and made several serious mistakes.

When Esparrago's goal came in the 117th minute, the Russians protested that Esparrago had fouled full back Kaplichniy before heading the ball.

Uruguay 0, Sweden 1

(Grahn 89)

For 89 minutes, the slow-motion ball-dancers from Uruguay were booed and whistled for their display of negative football as the Swedes, attacking with eight men, tried in desperation to break through the stone wall defence.

Swedish workhorse Bo Larsson weaved along the wing in the last minute and his head-high pass into the penalty area was headed home by Grahn.

Israel 0, Italy 0

Only 7000 people watched the goal-shy Italy win its lacklustre group by drawing 0-0 with the amateur of Israel.

Italy scored two goals that were ruled offside. The second, from a Riva header in the 73rd minute, had been allowed by Brazilian referee Airton de Moraes but the linesman held up his red flag.

There were brawls in the stands as the Israelis, desperately trying to keep Italy out, used every trick in the book to stop an Italian avalanche.

In an exciting 20 minutes in the first half, Alessandro Mazzola had golden opportunities in the fourth and sixth minutes and a de Sisti drive hit the post.

ENGLAND	3	2	0	1	2	1	4
RUMANIA	3	1	0	2	4	5	2

Rumania 2, Brazil 3

(Pele 19, 65, Jair 22, Dumitrache (R) 33, Dembrowski (R) 82)

Pele hit the limelight again with a great display and two goals but it was no vintage performance by Brazil, whose defence showed signs of panic under pressure.

With brilliant inter-passing, Brazil completely overran the Rumanians in the first half but after holding a 2-1 lead at the break, the South Americans went mainly defensive.

Czechoslovakia 0, England 1

(Clarke, pen. 49)

Although England achieved its target of reaching the quarter finals, its performance could give manager Sir Alf Ramsey little cause for satisfaction.

He made five changes, which could partially be blamed for England's lack of rhythm and it was the Czechs who for most of the time, looked more like the team with something at stake.

Thirty-one-year-old midfielder general Bobby Charlton equalled Billy Wright's record of 105 internationals but he and the rest of the team were booed by the 55,000 crowd and he was replaced in the 65th minute by Alan Ball.

Brazil 4, Peru 2

(Rivelino 11, Tastao 15, 51, Gallardo (P) 28, Cubillas 59, Jair 65)

Brazil's victory was never in doubt with Pele and Tastao showing the defects in Peru's zonal defensive system and finding oceans of space to move in.

In contrast, Peru played too close up front, running into trouble against Brazil's packed defence.

Tastao was the star of the match, scoring twice and setting up goals for Rivellino and Jair.

But credit must also go to the immortal Pele. One of Tastao's goals was from a Pele shot that would have gone in anyway.

Pele also hit the post once, and on another occasion had a hard shot saved on the line.

Peru made two changes and although substitute Hugo Sotil had a hand in one of the goals, nothing could daunt Brazil's supremacy.

Brazil also made a change, Paulo Cesar replacing linkman Gerson who was beginning to show signs of tiredness.

Late in the game Jair was rested by manager Mario Zagallo who brought on Roberts.

With the match tied up, Brazil spent the rest of the time conserving its energy for its semifinal against Uruguay.

PERU	3	2	0	1	5	4

MOROCCO	3	0	1	2	2	6	1

West Germany 3, Peru 1

(Mueller 20, 26, 38, Cubillas 43)

West Germany's deadly striker Gerd Mueller scored his second hat-trick in successive World Cup matches, to bring his total to seven.

Mueller caused panic in the Peru defence on innumerable occasions and was unlucky not to increase his tally.

He received an almost constant service of scoring chances from his wing men and from his one-time rival for the striker's job, Uwe Seeler.

Peru was never out of the game, missing several golden opportunities in the second half.

Mario Jorge Lobo, coach of Brazil.

Morocco 1, Bulgaria 1

(Jetchev (B) 40, Ghazouani 60)

The plucky amateurs of Morocco lifted the prestige of African soccer by scoring a fully-merited draw with a disappointing Bulgaria, before a crowd of only 5000.

Morocco, inspired by 22-year-old Mouhob Ghazouani, the best player on the field, came from behind and was on top after the equaliser.

Bulgaria's coach Stefan Bozhkov denied rumors he would resign after the World Cup because of his team's poor showing.

Melbourne suspends goalkeeper

Melbourne has suspended 24-year-old goalkeeper George Blakey.

Team manager Joe Szalay said this week Blakey had demanded the balance of his signing-on fee before he would play again.

Mr. Szalay said Blakey was not entitled to the money until the end of the season.

"I will not put up with threats from our players," Mr. Szalay said.

"The club is bigger than the individual and if a club allowed such behaviour to go unpunished that club should not exist."

Three parts

Mr. Szalay said Melbourne paid its signing-on fees in three parts ... the first when the player reaches the senior squad, the second after he has played consistently in the senior team for half a season and the third at the end of the season, provided the player had performed well in the senior team.

"Blakey had received half of his signing-on fee," Mr. Szalay said.

"So after he had been injured at work, he promised to resume training."

"But two weeks later he told me he would not resume unless he got his money in advance."

Blakey was born in Burnley, England and played for Nelson before coming to Australia last year.

George Blakey

George Kinnell of Juventus has been the best player in the Victorian State team this year, according to votes cast by Soccer News writers.

In Victoria's nine games this year, Kinnell scored a total of 18 votes, from a possible 27.

Others in order are Utjesenovic (J.U.S.T.) 8, Goodwin (Juventus) 5, MacKay (Croatia) 3, Kastner (George Cross) 3, Wallace (Melbourne) 3, Micic (J.U.S.T.) 1, Buljevic (J.U.S.T.) 1, McColi (Juventus) 1, Reilly (Juventus) 1.

Voting details — v. Hertha 03 (1-1): 3 Kinnell, 2 MacKay, 1 Micic.

v. Rumania B (0-1): 3 Kinnell, 2 Goodwin, 1 Vojtek.

v. Moscow Dynamo (1-7): 3 Utjesenovic, 2 Vojtek, no third.

v. N.S.W. (2-2): 3 Kinnell, 2 Vojtek, 1 Buljevic.

v. S.A. (2-2): 3 Vojtek, 2 Kinnell, 1 McColi.

v. N.S.W. (1-1): 3 Kastner, 2 Kinnell, 1 Utjesenovic.

v. Werder Bremen (1-2): 3 Wallace, 2 Utjesenovic, 1 Reilly.

v. S.A. (1-0): 3 Goodwin, 2 Kinnell, 1 MacKay.

Victoria's top scorer was Vojtek, with three. Other scorers were MacKay, Smart, Utjesenovic, Buljevic, Micic and Gorrie, each with one.

Victoria's record this year has been:

DINO'S BACK AGAIN

Dino DeMarchi who recently announced he would never again play for Juventus, has apologised to team manager Jimmy Simionato and is back in training.

"I had a talk to the team manager and we have come to an agreement," DeMarchi said this week.

When asked the terms of the agreement, he replied, "I am not supposed to say."

DeMarchi said a man representing George Cross had shown interest in recruiting him but there had been "money problems" over the transfer.

Club secretary Gilbert Martin said the committee was yet to discuss DeMarchi's case.

It is the committee's prerogative to refer the matter to the club's disciplinary panel.

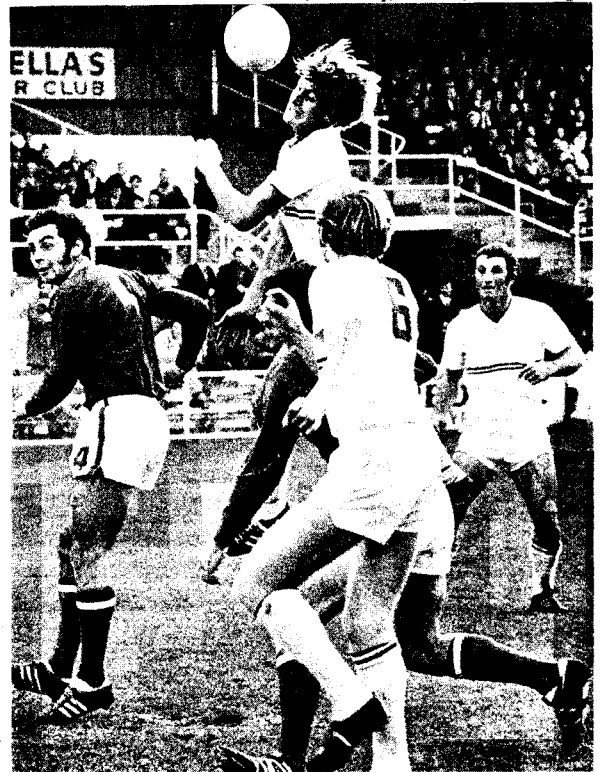

DeMarchi will probably play in the reserves against Wilhelmina on Sunday.

Atkins joins Hillmen

Steve Atkins, the goal-scoring Wilhelmina forward, has joined First Division club Box Hill.

Atkins, who scored two goals in Box Hill's 3-1 victory over Altona in their Dockerty Cup replay last Thursday, was transferred for $500.

With Atkins adding sting in the forward line, Box Hill is confident of making a quick return to State League.

Atkins has come just in time to replace striker Jimmy Coles who has returned to England on a holiday and won't be back until December.

Don Hodgson, whom Box Hill bought from George Cross early this year, has been out of the game due to business commitments.

Nevertheless, the

He played with Ayr. United and Dumbarton in the Scottish League and Poole Town in Southern England.

Hillmen are getting results. They're on top of the First Division and together with Sunshine City, have scored the most goals in the league.

Hammy tries George Cross

Former Victorian and Australian representative Hammy McMeechan last week tried to join George Cross.

But Cross officials told him the club could not afford to spend the money his Sydney club Western Suburbs would ask for him.

McMeechan had previously been trying to return to his original club, Croatia.

McMeechan joined Western Suburbs early last year and his contract with the club has not yet expired.

Gerd Mueller (left) pushes the ball into the net past the Australian goalkeeper during a World Cup elimination match.

GERD MUELLER, GOAL MACHINE

When West Germany's Gerd Mueller banged home three against Bulgaria and against Peru, he became only the second man to score successive hat-tricks in the World Cup finals.

The other marksman was Hungarian Sander Kocsis in 1954.

After West Germany's game against Peru, Mueller had scored seven goals in three outings.

Compare that to 1966, when West Germany's leading marksman ... Helmut Haller ... scored only five goals in the whole series, including the final. Goal scoring has become almost mechanical for Mueller.

"The Bomber" as he is called in Germany, scored 38 goals for his club Bayern Munich to become Europe's top marksman this year.

In the World Cup elimination matches, Mueller scored nine of his country's 20 goals.

For Bayern Munich, he scored eight more goals than Bundesliga wooden spooner Alemannia Aachen, three more than MSV Duisburg and the same number as Werder Bremen ... the team that played against Victoria last week.

If his 38 are subtracted from the 88 scored by Bayern, the club would occupy a run-of-the-mill position half way down the championship table.

But despite Mueller's lethal aim, he is far from a spectacular player.

As the German newspaper "Frankfurter Rundschau" says of him: "He does not shoot head first through the penalty area nor does he kick the ball over his head out of harm's way from behind, landing on his back pointed in the direction of the opposing half as Uwe Seeler used to, earning a burst of applause for an artistic display even though he has been unsuccessful for the previous 80 minutes."

Mueller just hammers the ball straight into the net. In this respect he has not changed all year.

No songs of praise

His admirers did not break out in songs of praise even when he put four in Oberhausen's net.

They were all goals scored at point-blank range and what is worse, on two occasions the opposing goalkeeper twice thumped the ball in front of his waiting feet.

"What's all this talk of luck?" Mueller angrily asks. "I am here to take the shot."

There can be no answer to that. A goal is a goal.

The rocks

The second in a series on the iron defenders of the State League

ZURAWSKI MIGHT GO HOME

Since coming to Melbourne in 1968, Joe Zurawski has been the mainstay of Polonia's defence.

The brawny sweeper has been a steady influence in a rearguard made up mainly of inexperienced players.

And his incisive thrusts down the centre have added system to Polonia's hesitant play.

But now the team is in danger of losing the man who has kept it out of the relegation zone this season.

Zurawski, 33, whose two-year contract runs out on June 29, said this week he would like to stay with Polonia for another season but that the Polish Olympic Committee, which controls the movement of Polish players to Australia, might not let him.

Part of Polonia's agreement with the Polish Olympic Committee was that the club could extend Zurawski's contract provided six months notice was given.

Late application

But Polonia has given only four months notice. It posted the application to the Polish Olympic Committee on March 7.

In ordinary circumstances the POC would probably make an exception but in this case it will remember Polonia's dispute earlier this year with Zurawski and goalkeeper Miroslaw Litwin.

The dispute is believed to have been about sections in the player's contracts. Zurawski, who was Litwin's team mate in Poland for four years, started his competitive soccer career at the age of 21.

He had played soccer at school but his main interest until he signed for Second Division club Gornick Walbrzych, had been athletics.

Shot putt was his forte and he was also good at javelin throwing and volleyball.

"I like soccer", said Zurawski, "but my brother Stan was good at athletics so I went along."

Since coming to Melbourne, Zurawski has often put his old skills to work on the athletics field.

He spent a year with the Lechia-Melbourne volleyball team and took first prize in shot putt at the annual Polish sports festival held early this year at Werribee.

After four years with Gornick in Poland, Zurawski switched to Skra-Czestochowa in the Third Division.

Playing as linkman, he improved rapidly and in 1962 he was recruited by First Division club Pogon - Szczecin.

He stayed in the big time until 1962, when he moved to Start - Lodz in Second Division and from there he came to Australia.

What was his reaction to Melbourne soccer when he first saw it in 1968?

"I thought it was very rough," he said. "It was in the English style - fast and always tackling - but it was not very good."

"In Europe players grab you by the arm when they want to stop you. It is better than cutting you down by the legs."

"Here it is rough. They go for the legs and many get badly hurt. I do not like this."

J.U.S.T. best

"I think J.U.S.T. plays best. They are good to watch. Buljevic and Zoraja are the most dangerous forwards I have played against in Melbourne. Spiekermann is dangerous also."

What of Polonia's future?

"Polonia's has many young players so the future looks very bright. But they need older players for stability. If all players are young it is not good. There must be some with great experience to help them."

To provide some of this stability, Polonia is importing another experienced Polish defender. His name is Marek Konopka and he's expected to arrive within the next four weeks.

So if the POC allows Zurawski to stay, his job will be a little bit easier.

Joe Zurawski

Box Hill gets the boot

Box Hill's under nine, under 11 and under 13 teams have been refused permission to continue playing matches at Wembley Park on Sundays.

Box Hill council made the decision at a recent meeting.

Now there is a possibility that Box Hill's junior section might move to Nunawading and change its name.

The seniors might also move.

Box Hill VFA club has been given permission to play five Sunday matches and charge admittance. These games attract about 2000 people. Only about 50 come to watch the juniors.

'Done nothing'

"The Box Hill soccer club has been in existence for 48 years and in that time the council has done nothing for us except maintain the ground and fences."

"We have had to build the dressing sheds, club rooms, and provide the lights and other facilities."

"Wembley Park is the only soccer ground in Box Hill and it is used every day by schools or for club matches or club training.

Turned down

Box Hill had submitted to council an application for a ground at the Elgar Road Sports Centre but council had turned it down.

Box Hill secretary, Mike Glennerster said this week the juniors had been playing on Sundays without permission.

"We thought council prohibited only games at which admittance is charged," he said.

"On the other hand, the State coach Zvonimir Rasic this week called for the formation of a junior coaching school.

Rasic said there was an urgent need for such a school and that he would be willing to run one himself.

"We need the assistance of a club, which would be willing to make available its ground and other facilities," Rasic said.

"The State's top coaches should be utilised in such a school and they should be under one central direction, so that methods of instruction and knowledge imparted remain uniform."

"Attempts have probably been made in the past to start such a school but none have been successful."

"A boy's progress in modern soccer depends largely on the way basics are taught to him when he is very young."

"Therefore, we need a school that provides a detailed program. Such a school would produce not only a good soccer player but would also develop an all-round sportsman with a healthy attitude to sport and to his fellows."

Preparation

"Soccer teams cannot produce top results unless its players are mentally and physically prepared. This preparation required the teaching of technique and tactics and their development to a high level."

"Because they provide the right preparation, European countries are so far ahead in producing top class talent like Brian Kidd, who was on Manchester United's Senior books at the age of 17."

"Without detailed teaching, without top educators, without systematic work and without individual teaching, we will not get top results."

"We must plan from the beginning. Young coaches must be given ideas on how to improve the talent of youngsters from the technical, tactical and physical aspects."

Rasic said modern coaching methods, as practised in Europe, had made their mark on the game.

He said soccer had become much faster and players' work-rates had increased dramatically.

Can't think

"Today's player does not get time to think," he said.

"He must, in one second, find a number of different solutions to any given situation. Therefore he must be very knowledgeable in all tactical variations of the game."

"Old-fashioned players bound to one position, are out!"

"Modern football requires modern knowledge and modern art."

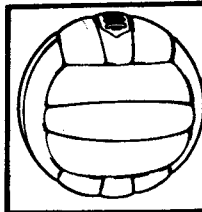

"The soccer player of the future must be fast, durable and technically and tactically near perfect."

"He must be able to play with equal success in attack and defence and he must have excellent knowledge of the team game."

"He must therefore be superbly fit."

"All these things would be the responsibility of a coaching school."

THE VOICE OF SOCCER IN VICTORIA

'Look what I won'

"This is the medal I won for being in the Victorian champion under 10 team last year," says St. Albans player Steve Gangur to the Governor, Sir Rohan Delacombe, before the recent game between Victoria and Manchester City. Steve Crilly (right) was also in the now famous team.

Read what Cramer says

Next week Junior Soccer News will bring you Dettmar Cramer's views on junior coaching.

Cramer, who visited Melbourne early this season on a lecture tour, is the official coach of FIFA and one of the world's leading authorities on soccer.

Also next week, State coach Zvonimir Rasic begins his regular series of coaching hints.

Rasic will outline ways in which junior coaches can get better results. His weekly column will also help boys improve their game.

Juniors show their strength

Victoria's juniors staged their greatest show of strength before the recent Manchester City v. Victoria game at Olympic Park.

About 2000 youngsters from clubs all over Melbourne as well as from country centres marched around the playing field, carrying club banners.

After the match, which Manchester City won 3-0, hundreds of boys raced on to the pitch to congratulate their heroes from both teams.

Here are some of the boys who paraded that day. Study the faces — in a few years they will be the stars of Victorian soccer.

These are our future stars

The future of Victorian soccer rests with the juniors and because our juniors are so talented, the future looks bright.

There are still obvious weaknesses however — the most noticeable being the shortage of skilled coaches.

If we had more top men, then there would be more youngsters as talented as the ones of this page — the ones who possess that certain something that can't be taught.

The stars of older age groups will appear next week.

trying to persuade the school to take on soccer.

Recently Mr. Castellini arranged a visit to the school by Juventus coach Gastone Boggi and other top soccer personalities.

Xavier's school team currently has 16 players.

Metropolitan round-up — with George Yelland

BOX HILL, ALTONA TIE FINALLY BROKEN

"When Altona equalised, it was like 10,000 people cheering behind me."

So said the linesman after the third replay of the Box Hill v. Altona, Dockerty Cup-tie at Olympic Park last Thursday.

It was indicative of the enthusiasm and atmosphere which has attended this marathon tie.

Box Hill, who had signed Steve Atkins from Wilhelmna, only hours before the game, won 3-1.

Atkins scored the last two goals.

Altona were without the services of star pivot, Jimmy Ackers and also five other regular first team players.

Box Hill were at full strength and went into a 10-minute lead with a John Brown goal.

They played brilliant, "one touch" soccer, which kept the 500 crowd on its toes.

Peter Craig was outstanding with neat flicks and accurate long passes.

Tommy McPherson masterminded most midfield moves and John Brown was a perpetual threat in attack.

Full marks to Altona, who recovered from the early set-back, defended superbly and finally drew level.

Steve Herman followed up a free-kick which Hagar failed to hold and rammed the ball home from close range, at the 60-minute mark.

The ever alert and dangerous Atkins moved into the centre to collect a long ball and neatly slid it past Ian Roberts.

With three minutes left, Atkins made the game safe when he scored again.

Harry Ypren played a lone hand in Altona's attack but always looked dangerous.

Veteran Frankie Loughran was all over the field and played his heart out.

Chris Karametos marshalled his defence well and was ably backed by Robert Milloy and Bill Ormerod.

Hans Dellamyn was a bundle of energy and got through a colossal amount of work.

Two days later, Box Hill had an easy passage into the last sixteen for the Dockerty Cup, when they had a comfortable 4-1 victory over Geelong at Wembley Park.

Interest in this year's Dockerty Cup is at an all time high.

The Box Hill, Altona marathon, and several closely fought games are chiefly responsible.

Saturday was no exception.

Newborough and Western Suburbs I.C.I. fought out a draw, extra time being played.

They will meet again at Deer Park on Sunday June 21st., at 2.45 p.m.

On a heavy ground, Newborough shocked the Metro. side by scoring in the very first minute.

The visitors did not lose poise and fought back for linkman Demetrios Kypriotidis to fasten on to a pass from the left wing and equalise after 15 minutes.

Ten minutes later Western Suburbs took the lead when the same player let loose a terrific drive, which the goalie could not hold.

Further misfortune befell Newborough when a defender handled in the area and George Maykousis scored from the spot.

The visitors began to take things easily after half-time but Newborough fought like tigers. They scored in the 70th minute and slammed in the equaliser with only four minutes to go.

Extra time was played in failing light, but no further goals were scored.

Western Suburbs played the last 10 minutes and 30 minutes of extra time with only 10 men.

Early in the second half, Duncan Triplett had sprained his ankle and was replaced by Sammy Papashalis. In the 80th minute, Sammy Kagioglou had to retire hurt.

Yet another replay became necessary when Elwood Austria and Keilor City were level 2-2 after 120 minutes of play.

Keilor broke away in the 17th minute. Eddie Kupicz streaked down the right wing and crossed for Stan Klain to crack home a beautiful goal.

Two brilliant moves by Gross led to Austria equalising in the 22nd minute and taking the lead, five minutes later. It was cut and thrust until half-time.

Keilor turned on the pressure in the second half but Waldo Klain missed three "sitters" in a row.

With only seven minutes remaining, he atoned by scoring the equaliser.

Johnny Szepeaniak replaced Stan Klain for the second half.

Remaining Dockerty Cup game was a non-Melbourne affair.

Bell Park moved into the money when they entertained and defeated Latrobe Valley side Morwell Rangers 3-1.

David Huddard, Joe

Parks and Henry Jackens scored for the Geelong side, whose best players were right back Dusan Saba, inside left Parks and centre forward Jackens.

Five Harry Armstrong cup-ties were played last Saturday.

All conquering Elwood Austria reserves were soundly beaten by Hakoah, as were St. Albans reserves by Polonia.

Only real shock of the round was Albion Rovers reserves 2-0 defeat of Footscray J.U.S.T. reserves.

Mooroolbark's ground was declared unfit by the referee, but so keen were the boys to play that they rushed down to Sandringham for their game.

Mooroolbark had a narrow 2-1 victory in a well fought contest.

Brighton refused to turn up at Green Gully Ajax and forfeited the tie. (See separate story).

Four Federation Cup games were played. Green Gully Ajax, Yallourn and Mooroolbark pass into the next round.

Draw specialists, Frankston City ended all square at St. Albans after extra time.

Saturday's 4-4 draw was quite a goal feast for both sides and something of a shock as both defences had good records.

After 15 minutes play in the Mooroolbark v. Brighton game, Irvine put Mooroolbark ahead when he met a lob with a first time volley.

Ten minutes before half-time, Joe McLean's attempted clearance went across goal.

Tony Barnes sliced his kick and the ball skidded into the net.

Two down at the interval, Brighton fought back and reduced the arrears with a glorious goal from Theman.

Mooroolbark handled the conditions better than Brighton and once again got on top.

Reserve goalie Andy McGeachan gave a first class display for Brighton.

Other Brighton players to take the eye were Gordon Hay, Jimmy Molloy and David Campbell.

Inside forward Bobby Friels, promoted from the reserves, also did well.

Yallourn soundly defeated Park Rangers, who failed to last the pace.

Linton Planner, a convert from Aussie Rules, put Yallourn ahead after seven minutes followed by Joss Adrichen, who made it 2-0 after 14 minutes.

Two minutes later Neil Robertson reduced the arrears for Park Rangers.

Several times Rangers went near to equalising but a twenty minute burst, in which Yallourn scored four times settled the issue beyond doubt.

Adrichen completed a hat-trick. No metropolitan First Division games were played and only one in Second Division.

Moreland Thistle overwhelmed Sandringham to the tune of 8-1. This was Moreland's biggest win for years.

Star of the game was Phil Clarke who scored six goals.

In the eighth minute Roland Sowter's shot was dropped by the goalie and Clark was on hand to score.

After 20 minutes, sheer persistence brought his second which went in off the post.

Ten minutes before half time, Clark completed his first hat-trick when he cut in from the left and scored from an acute angle.

Four minutes after the interval, Sandringham who, to their credit, never gave up, reduced the deficit but six minutes later Herb Pilsen nodded a right wing cross past a defender and slammed the ball in to the net.

In the next ten minutes Clark scored three times, the second when he rose high to nod in following an Anderson corner kick.

Davey Oxtin completed the rout with a typical vintage Oxtin effort.

Schemer and linkman Eric Wilkes, Clark and Oxtin were outstanding in a team which showed no weaknesses.

In third division, St. Kilda had a clear cut win over Baywater, and FernTree Gully piped Croydon 3-2.

In Fourth Division, Melbourne University put up a great fight against North Carlton Olympic before going down 2-1.

A sub standard game at Moorabbin produced a draw against Monash University.

Newport inflicted a 6-2 beating on Mornington, who were always second best.

Seventeen-year-old Bernard Bartkiewicz scored two goals and was one of Newport's outstanding players.

Ziggy Jablonski, celebrated his return from his honeymoon by scoring two more and the home side led 4-1 at the interval.

Further goals were scored by Richard Sobczyk and Wacek Kazakiewicz and Mornington scored again to make the final result 6-2.

Anton Coppola and Andre Mierwa were other outstanding players for Newport.

Corio put up a fine performance when they visited South Yarra and emerged victors 3-2.

Doncaster visited Rosebud and soundly thrashed the luckless seashiders.

TRIUMPH FOR EVIL

By GEORGE YELLAND

Referee Peter Stathopoulos bashed and bleeding, was kicked while lying on the ground.

This didn't occur on a dark night in some isolated back alley.

It happened on the Green Gully Ajax soccer ground on Saturday, June 6.

The player found guilty of attacking the referee, received the modest sentence of five years suspension.

Another player who laid hands on the official, though admittedly only "pushing" him, got a mere six weeks.

Spectators invaded the pitch when Ajax player

Boris Braini was sent off for violent conduct and refused to go. Opposing players were assaulted and the referee had no option but to abandon the game.

In 1968 Green Gully Ajax was fined $10 for an incorrect team sheet and put on a $50 bond for failure to control officials and spectators.

On a report by the referee, in 1969, the club was warned for interference by spectators in the course of a game.

The tale of mob violence and pathetically inadequate penalties continued in 1970.

In April, a referee reported that Ajax spectators invaded the pitch. Eventually they were removed and the referee re-started the game so the I. & D. Committee took no action.

This time, however, the Metropolitan League Management Committee stepped in and requested that the charge be noted on the club's record.

Last week's disgusting affair brought only a $100 bond.

In the past, Brunswick Athena had to supply police, both home and away, for similar offences.

Repetition brought the penalty of playing all their games away from home.

North Carlton Olympic, also, had to provide police because of violent spectators.

What is special about Green Gully Ajax?

Our Soccer chiefs must not sidestep this issue. Firm and severe penalties must be imposed. Violence and mob rule have got to be eliminated from our game.

Because Brighton, the club involved in the brawl, was due to play a Harry Armstrong Reserves Cup-tie at Green Gully this week, they asked for it to be played on neutral territory.

This was turned down, so Brighton officials, fearing for the safety of their boys, refused to turn up. Ajax received a walkover.

A triumph for mob violence!

MANGOPOULOS DANGER TO MELBOURNE

With Juventus headed for certain victory against Hakoah, second-placed Melbourne will again figure in the best match of the round.

And for the first time in many weeks, Zvonimir Basic's team looks vulnerable.

Alexander, which is expecting top class Hercules forward Fotinos to arrive soon, has what it takes to force Melbourne to concede at least one point.

Striker Jimmy Mangopoulos is in lethal form. His speed, ball artistry, positioning and accuracy have made him the State League's top scorer and has him knocking on the door of the State team.

If Mike Glykokalamos and Andrew Fokianos fire in midfield, Mangopoulos could get that one opportunity which might be enough to clinch a point. For Alexander's five-man defence, backed by new goalkeeper John Vassilakakis, who's showing great form, looks capable of holding Melbourne.

FOOTSCRAY v. GEORGE CROSS

(Schintler Res., Sat.)

Frankly, George Cross doesn't have a chance in the world of beating J.U.S.T. or even forcing a draw.

The Cross is playing such sloppy soccer that it's lucky not to be further down the table.

Footscray, although subject to inexplicable lapses of poor form, has talented players all over the field.

Slobodan Zoraja, with nine goals, is the second highest scorer in State League.

Branko Buljevic has netted seven and Frank Micic and Tommy Stankovic have four each.

Footscray has Cedo Cirkovic, Milenko Rusmir, Drago Utjesenovic and Geoff Evans in defence. How can John Sanchez drive his forwards through that lot?

LIONS v. POLONIA

(Montgomery Pk., Sat.)

Polonia now has Joe Zurawski in attack and he seems to be the messiah the forward line has been waiting for.

Eddy Marmur has proved a more than adequate substitute in Zurawski's old sweeper role and Andrew Czapnik and Edek Widera are playing well in midfield. Lions have good forwards in Tommy Roseweir, Jim Robertson and Eddy Butler if Mike Starczak is still unavailable but they have the worst defence in State League.

That's why Polonia will win.

CROATIA v. HELLAS

(Olympic Pk., Sun.)

Last week's 5-2 victory over Lions has given Hellas the confidence it needs to realise its full potential.

Ulysses Kokkinos, in his new role of centre forward, is playing excellent football and at the other end of the field, Steve Walker is virtually impassable.

Croatia must make more use of Victoria's best forward, Billy Vojtek, if it is to worry opposing teams.

Vojtek runs free and makes position well but his team mates haven't been playing through him.

WILHELMINA v. SLAVIA

(Jubilee Pk., Sun.)

Slavia is relegation-bound and Wilhelmina will help it along on Sunday.

Look for talent in the Slavia line-up and you stop at Jim Train, Tony Zanatta and perhaps Marshall McCallum.

Look for team work and you don't find it; look for enthusiasm and it's not there; look for determination and they'll ask you what it is.

No wonder coach Ron Saweicki quit. How long will Mike O'Hara bear it?

HAKOAH v. JUVENTUS

(Middle Pk., Sun.)

This'll be another goal feast, with Juventus maintaining its huge lead at the top of the ladder.

George Kinnell is playing such superb soccer in defence that even Superman wouldn't get past him.

So Mike Clarey and company haven't got a hope.

And up front, Bryan Thomson, Tommy McCall and Ron Frost should notch up a few despite strong resistance by John O'Neill.

Sth. Melb 5, Lions 2

(Roseweir (L) 5, Kokkinos 11, Gorrie 17, 47, J. Robertson (L) 23, Damianakos 86, Armstrong 89)

Ulysses Kokkinos was shifted to spearhead and the move worked wonders. The inconsistent striker played his best game of the season, scored a fine goal and had a hand in three others.

Highlight of the match was a penalty taken by Kokkinos in the 75th. minute and saved spectacularly by Heinz Wenzl. The penalty was awarded when Ricky Van Zeist stopped Ernie Ackerey's hard shot with his hands.

Early, it looked like a battle of the opposing number nines, with Tommy Roseweir playing intelligently in Lions' attack. But Steve Walker gradually got the upper hand and when Jim Robertson was cut out by Alan Rutherford, it was curtains for Lions.

The Essendon side has no defence to speak of. Only Hugh Murney was effective and when Lions were 2-3 down, Roseweir came back in an effort to strengthen the rear-guard. But nothing worked.

The teams:
STH. MELB: Stephens: Kyriasis (sub. Daperis half time), Walker, High, Rutherford, Ackerey, Pyrgiolos, Gorrie, Armstrong, Kokkinos, Damianakos, Coach - Vic Janczyk, Manager - Bill Curran.
LIONS: Wenzl: Murray, Murney, Van Zeist, Schwartz, Collinson, McCarthy, F. Robertson, J. Robertson, Roseweir, Starczak (inj. 10th m., sub. Butler), Coach - Stan Plekan.
Notes:
Sth. Melb: 3. Kokkinos, 2. Walker, 1. Ackerey.
LIONS: 3. McCarthy, 2. Murney, 1. J. Robertson.

Polonia 2, Hakoah 1

(Zurawski 50, Czapnik 70, Stenhouse (H) 80)

Polonia moved Joe Zurawski from defence to attack and he provided the punch that has long been missing in front of goal.

Zurawski organised attacks, scored a goal and set up the second for Andrew Czapnik, who played a constructive game as linkman.

Coach Kaz Kowalec made a comeback to steady his young team and he played well until the 65th. minute, when he made room for Henry Czerniecki.

Hakoah, which has a poor forward line in the best of circumstances was weakened even more by the blanketing of Mike Clarey by Eddy Marmur and Mike Olinowski.

Polonia could have won by a greater margin had it not been for a poor penalty kick taken by Zurawski and saved by Peter Muir.

The teams:
Polonia: Litwin, Knot, Olinowski, Marmur, Sowula, Widera, Czapnik, Wrobel, Zurawski, Kowalec (sub. Czerniecki, 65th. m.), Plaskota, Coach - Kaz Kowalec, Manager - Reno Guardiani.
Hakoah: Mur: Douglas, Baker, J. Anderson (inj. sub. Portwood, 35th.), O'Neill, Stenhouse, Fry, Waaldyk, Clarey, Robertson, Cameron, Coach - Jim Adam, Manager - Robert Levin.
Notes:
Polonia: 3. Czapnik, 2. Marmur, 1. Litwin.
Hakoah: 3. O'Neill, 2. Fry, 1. Waaldyk.

Juventus 1, Ringwood 0

(Kinnell 57)

Wilhelmina was ineffective on the wings, where Frank Butt was beaten by Pat Della Rocca, and Freddy Bunce became a passenger after suffering an injury.

In the second half this almost total absence of wing power, not relieved when Terry O'Toole replaced Butt, forced Ringwood through the centre where George Kinnell and Jack Goodwin ruthlessly stamped out all danger.

Kinnell's highly developed sense of anticipation linked with brutally cold and professional tackling make him the lynch-pin of his side and Goodwin was no slouch either!

Late in the game Ringwood had about as much control in midfield as King Canute on the seashore and Juventus rolled downfield like a tidal-wave.

But although more inventive than Ringwood in attack, Juventus was just as ineffective and so it was fitting that a defender - Kinnell - should score the winning goal.

Ringwood's defence was steady throughout.

Dick Ward, improving weekly, gave another energetic performance and veteran Bobby Adam showed surprising turning speed under the heavy conditions.

The team:
Juventus: Rellly: Della Rocca, Kinnell, Irvine, Lakey, Salisbury, Goodwin, (Sub. R. Thomson, 79), Webster: Frost, Thompson, McCall, Coach - Gastone Boggi, Manager - Jimmy Simianato.

Ringwood City: Van Emmond: Bailey, Ward, Adam, Bens: Pygall, Pye: Bunce, Edgley, Spiekerman, Butt (Sub. O'Toole, 70), Coach - Brian Edgley, Manager - Fred Hutchinson.

Voting:
Juventus: 3. Kinnell, 2. Goodwin, 1. B. Thomson.
Ringwood: 3. Ward, 2. Adam, 1. von Emmond.

Melbourne 2, Croatia 0

(Rogers 1, Bleskany 70)

Whereas Melbourne would attack with five or six men, Croatia came forward with two or three.

Melbourne's Alistair Scott was much faster in midfield than his Croatia counterparts and Steve Bleskany and Ray Pocock opened up the forward line by playing wide out on the wings.

Croatia's hopes in this game rested with Jimmy MacKay and Billy Vojtek.

But MacKay, after a great first half, tried to play a lone hand, and Vojtek was cut out of the game by his own team mates.

Croatia plugged the gap left by injured captain Horst Rau with reserve Ivan Turicac who showed up as a good ball player.

The teams:
MELBOURNE: Gerrard: McDavid, Szabo, Juhasz, McGowan, Scott, Keri, Wallace, Pocock, Rogers, Bleskany, Coach - Zvonimir Basic, Manager - Joe Staley.
CROATIA: Kovacek: McArthur, Rahjer (sub. Wixey, half time), Gunn, Symington, Williams, Turicac, MacKay, McIntyre, Vojtek, Hargreaves, Coach - Michael Kiss.
Notes:
Melbourne: 3. Scott, 2. Bleskany, 1. Rogers.
Croatia: 3. Gunn, 2. Symington, 1. McArthur.

George Cross 2, Alexander 5

(Glykokalamos 16, Mangopoulos 51, 77, 89, Epifano (GC) 68, Brown 72, Sanchez (GC), pen. 81)

Goal-hungry striker Jimmy Mangopoulos scored a spectacular hat-trick and was the most exciting player on the field.

Mangopoulos is having a great season and must rank high in consideration for State representative honors.

George Cross never adapted to the heavy conditions.

Persisting in short passing, they were easy prey for a first time tackling defence, in which Xanthopoulos, Glennie and Valtanis were immovable.

Peter Selfe was outstanding but in the last minutes of play allegedly used foul language and received his marching orders.

Derek Ricks was outstanding in his efforts to stem the tide of Alexander attacks.

Cross must learn to vary their style to suit conditions and their defence should play closer and cover better.

Alexander are direct and enthusiastic. They are good to watch, without being experts in the finer arts of the game.

The teams:
GEORGE CROSS: Kastner: McLachlan, Kelly: Sanchez, Ricks, Friedberger: Pryde, (sub. Rogers 62), Reid: Smart, Walker, Epifano, Coach - Ken Patterson.
ALEXANDER: Vassilakakis: Valtanis, T. Xanthopoulos, Kriaris, Selfe, Glennie, Glykokalamos, Fokianos: Brown, Mangopoulos, Tsirogianis, Coach - Manny Podakakis.

Voting:
Alexander: 3. Mangopoulos, 2. Vassilakakis, 1. Xanthopoulos.
George Cross: 3. Ricks, 2. Smart, 1. Epifano.

Slavia 0, Footscray 5

(Micic 15, 48, Zoraja 46, pen. 75, 79)

This game was a crashing bore from start to finish.

Slavia played without purpose, design or heart. It was an insult to the thousand or more spectators who paid good money to see a football match.

It was no competition from the word go. J.U.S.T. won easily without moving out of bottom gear.

Jim Train showed flashes of good soccer and tried to get his teammates moving. Russell Steele spoiled a number of good moves by inaccurate finish and bad passing.

In spite of scoring five easy goals and missing a penalty, Footscray became infected by Slavia's bumbling and much of their play was sub-standard.

Frank Micic schemed well, Slobodan Zoraja was always dangerous and Bronko Buljevic ran around almost unchallenged.

The teams:
SLAVIA: Kuhn: Jones, Train, Zanatta, Shedden, Paul, Harris, Schleibert, McCallum, Steele and Little, Coach - Mike O'Hara.
FOOTSCRAY J.U.S.T.: Fode, Utjesenovic, Rusmir, Dasovic, Evans, Cirkovic, Lukic, Micic, Zoraja, Buljevic and Stankovic, Coach Lou Brodie.
Notes:
Footscray: 3. Zoraja, 2. Micic, 1. Buljevic.
Slavia: 3. Train, 2. Steele, 1. Paul.

CHARLTON WILL VISIT

Bobby Charlton, England's brilliant midfield general, will visit Australia this month.

Charlton (pictured) will arrive in Sydney on June 27 for a two-week coaching and lecture tour.

He will come direct from the World Cup finals in Mexico.

Charlton's visit is being arranged by the Daily Mirror newspaper in Sydney. As part of the deal, Charlton will write a series of articles for the Mirror.

Broke record

Mirror soccer writer John Nowak said this week it was unlikely that Charlton would visit other States during his tour.

In England's quarter-final against West Germany, Charlton reached another milestone in his long career when he broke Bill Wright's England record of 105 appearances.

Wilson may come here

Ray Wilson, the most capped full-back to have represented England, is reported by British newspapers to be thinking seriously of migrating to Australia.

Wilson, who was England's 1966 World Cup full-back, is now playing for Oldham Athletic in Fourth division.

He was given a free transfer last September from Everton, after a cartilage operation caused him to miss most of the 1968-69 season.

MILLAR IN SWAP?

Polonia is negotiating to swap Jimmy Millar with Dandenong City's Dennis Goodhall.

Goodhall was asked to attend Polonia's training on Tuesday night.

Goodhall, 22, is a linkman and was on the books of West Bromwich Albion in England.

Millar, 28, was transferred from Juventus last year, together with David Closs and Jimmy Malloy.

Millar is a utility player and was with Motherwell and Paisley in Scotland before coming to Melbourne about five years ago.

DISTRICT LEAGUE

Central Altona buys Marth

By RICK LAVALE

Central Altona has paid a record District League fee of $160 for St. Albans' former captain Joe Marth.

Marth, an attacking half back was dominant in Central Altona's shock 2-1 league win over highly fancied Williamstown Inter in the Western Zone on Sunday.

PREMIER DIV.

Kingsville got away with a 1-0 win when a long high ball was dropped by goalie Roberto Bertocchi. He failed to retrieve it and the ball rolled over the line.

Attacking soccer by Fitzroy produced goals from Korlevic, Pasquini and Ferrovalte and kept the pressure on Kingsville, only one point in front of the Blues.

Langwarrin could not handle the heavy ground and lost to Chadstone 3-0. After a scoreless first half, Langwarrin went close to scoring but the shot scraped off a post, but at the other end John Ryan, John Law and Tommy Doolan all were on target.

Two quick goals in the opening 10 minutes got Ardeer off to a great start, with Chris Ciampi and Peter Ramjak scoring after corner kicks. Melton reduced the arrears and continued to worry their opponents until Eddie Klimczak put the result beyond doubt.

Pascoe Vale gained their third win of the season by downing North Altona 4-2. Steve Janovski received his marching orders from the referee during the game, but not before he had scored a brilliant hat-trick. Peter Petevsici got the first goal and centre half Norm Colavski was an inspiration to his team. In a high scoring game Yarraville, visiting Frankston Pines, earned the points 6-4. Goals for Yarraville were scored by Bakos, Chokos and Lemetis.

East

Doveton continued its undefeated run with ease by crushing Mitcham 6-1 and scoring all seven goals. Barry Clark netted a hat-trick, Roger Hammill and Ian Smith, added to the total with the other goal being scrambled over the line. Ian Sweeney although in the winning team, had a far from happy day, hitting the crossbar from the penalty spot and later scoring an own goal.

Burnley edged Windsor out of second position by winning 1-0. Garcia got the goal while Lobactio was always in the thick of play.

Central

East Carlton kept its promotion hopes alive when outside-left Barrasso headed the only goal of the game following a corner against Reservoir.

Regent met strong opposition from Carlton but was equal to the task and finished strongly to win 1-0. Two goals from Tito Ferrante set Regent in motion but Carlton fought back to reduce the lead through centre-forward Ridenkovic.

Mike Stogiannov scored Regent's third.

Royal Park defeated Diamond Creek 6-2, with goals from Binyazir 2, Fikirkoca 2, Canin and Calal. The Creek replied through Kevn Mitchell and John Harris.

West

Williamstown-Inter's promotion hopes received a setback when it lost 1-2 to Central Altona.

Rudi Kieffer gave Altona the lead but J. Hermann levelled the scores to set the stage for a great finish. Karl Anschover and Joe Marth took control in mid-field and finally Sergio Zomala netted the winner to mark Central Altona as a danger team despite their slow start to the season.

Middle Park was fined for recently playing an unregistered player against Williamstown and despite winning the game, the two league points are now awarded to the Inter club.

Garden City defeated Laverton 6-4 but the winning margin could have been greater as Charlie McCorquodale shot wide from the penalty spot. Marksmen on target for the City were Tadvitids 3, Tsat-sakis, Panavaotalaras and Sparapoulos.

North Sunshine's winning 4-0 tally against Laverton B, brought Laverton's goals conceded tally to just one short of the half-century. A hat-trick from Joe Peel and a Charlie Borg goal made up North's total.
